"I Know We Don't Want Communism" Knight Reports On Return From Russia

"We are no longer afraid of Russia or the communist way of life, as expounded by communists everywhere," said S. N. Knight, Belle Glade farmer, who has just returned from a 4-weeks' tour of Russia and parts of Europe.

Knight, along with 16 other Farmers, Real Estate Brokers, and Bankers, went on a "people to people" tour, sponsored by the Florida State Agricultural Department, but each individual had to pay his own expenses.

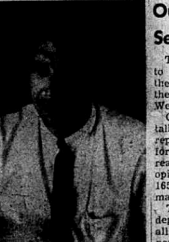

The group left New York July 21st, flew to Paris, and there transferred to another plane, flying to Brussels where they spent two days before going on to Moscow.

The first thing they noticed, according to Knight, was the women were doing men's work. At the airport, they were directing plane traffic, and very few men were in evidence. Later, they noticed women spreading uplift and laying brick and doing labor, that in America, is performed by men.

The first night in Moscow, a few of the group went down to the Railroad Station, and watched as thousands of Russian men, women and children poured in and out of the rail terminal. There was no loud talking, no smiles.

When conversation was necessary, it was in whispers. "It was an eerie feeling," said

The local Lions club was host to the entire coaching staff of the Belle Glade High School at their weekly luncheon meeting Wednesday noon.

Coch Bill Burke gave a short talk on the football team. He reported there were 97 boys for the team, but some had already been cut. He is of the opinion the line average about 165 pounds, while the backfield may be a bit more heavy.

The team will not have the depth of last year's squad, but all in all, should come up to the performance record of last year.

Glades Road Improvements Under Study, Advises SRD

"Recommended improvements for Glades road system in report now being prepared," advises John H. Monahan, Member of the Florida State Road Department. After repeated inquiries to County and State Agencies, The Belle Glade Herald has been advised by wire that a report is being processed.

Gove Elementary Boundaries Given Schedules And Registration Today

All students served by Belle Glade Elementary School will register at the Belle Glade Elementary School on Thursday, August 27th. This will also include those who will be assigned to Gove Elementary School.

All students, who have previously been enrolled in Belle Glade Elementary check the bulletin at the southeast entrance way for their names and room assignment. All other students will report to the Auditorium for registration and room assignment. This will include all first graders who have not received a card telling them of their room assignment. All students entering first grade for the first time must furnish the following: (1) Birth certificate (2) Record of Immunization.

Pupils who will attend Gove Elementary School will be able to meet their teachers on Registration Day, but only those enrolled in Grades 4, 5 and 6 will be able to determine in which room they will begin the school year.

Grades 1, 2 and 3 will begin the year in the Education Wing of the Community Methodist Church. Since these rooms are in use during the week of August 24-28 in connection with Youth Week, teachers of Grades 1, 2 and 3 will greet their pupils in the former Home Economics Room, Agriculture Building presently designated as Room 25. On Monday, August 31, these pupils will report to the Community Methodist Church, Education Wing.

All pupils enrolled in Grades 4 through 6 living within the following area will be enrolled in Gove Elementary School:

North boundary — Hillsborough Canal.
West boundary — East side of 2nd Street.
South boundary — Includes Lot 3 Subdivision and Vinegar Bend Area.

East boundary — All transacting students including Twenty-mile Bend and Brown's Farm area.

By the Road Department Engineers, which will contain recommendations for much needed improvements to roads in the Glades area.

The telegram was in answer to our wire of last week to Mr. Monahan. Although not answering in detail our questions, the statement that planning for improvements is underway, and that twenty-five feet of berm or shoulder will be required of future roads alongside canals is most optimistic. The fact that State Road 80 from South Bay to Twenty Mile Bend is listed as critical shows that the District Road Department Engineers are conscious of our situation. Critical areas listed receive priority for improvement. This means that State Road 80 will have a priority status as funds become available. It is most desirable that this improvement of 80 includes four lanes.

The resurfacing of State Road 80 from our interpretation is only a temporary improvement until funds are available for a major overhaul. Let us hope that funds will be available at an early date.

Following is the reply received from The State Road Department:

Replying to your telegram of August 19, 1964 No. 1. The State Road Department works on a yearly basis budget and to the first of August this administration has expended $9,716,988 in Palm Beach County has a term of approximately 25 feet from the shoulder of the road to the canal bank.

No. 2. The State Road Department is in the process of preparing a report for recommended improvements to the canal system in the Glades Area. No. 4. The portion of State Road 80 between Clewiston and South Bay is under construction as a four lane divided highway at the present time. Our sufficiency rating maps show that the portion from South Bay to 20 mile bend is critical and from 20 mile bend to US 441 is tolerable. A critical area approximately four miles east of US 441 is also indicated. Critical areas are considered as priority or improvement but due to the amount of monies available it is to bring the present road system up to standard.

Signed John H. Monahan, Member, State Road Board and Turnpike Authority.

This paper will keep in constant touch with the responsible authorities to further remind them of our road conditions.

The ultra-modern 18,000 square feet B and B Market will employ approximately 20 people and will have a parking area to accommodate over a hundred cars. C. C. First Baptist Welcomes Home Rev. And Mrs. Luther Key

Rev. and Mrs. Luther A. Key

The First Baptist Church, 17 N. W. Avenue B, welcomes back into its fellowship this Sunday, August 30th, the Rev. Luther A. Key, Pastor, and Mrs. Key. Rev. and Mrs. Key have been in England for the past two months in an exchange ministry with the Rev. Richard Millington of the Cambray Baptist Church, Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, England. Rev. Key has travelled extensively in the British Commonwealth, speaking in numerous pulpits in England and Wales. He also participated in a Bible Conference in South England, speaking on two occasions there. Rev. and Mrs. Key also visited many points of interest during their stay, including London, Birmingham, and Plymouth, from which the pilgrims said to America. Rev. Key spoke aboard the 'Mayflower' replica which was sailed to Miami in 1957. This ship was built in Plymouth and sailed to America via the same route the Pilgrims used. This was a highlight of their trip to Plymouth. This Sunday, following the morning worship services, a dinner will be held in the Social Hall in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Key's homecoming, and also honoring the faculty and administration of our public schools. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and welcome their pastor back in addition to meeting and greeting our school personnel.

Farewell Reception Honors Rev. and Mrs. Millington

A reception was held at the First Baptist Church, Sunday evening, Aug. 29th, following worship services in the Social Hall of the church for the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Millington, of Cheltenham, England. Rev. Millington has been with the First Baptist Church for the past two months in an exchange ministry with the Rev. Luther A. Key. The Millingtons were honored by approximately 150 friends who wished to bid them Godspeed on their return trip to England. On the reception table was a large cake, bearing the inscription, "Farewell, Rev. and Mrs. Millington."

Rev. and Mrs. Millington left Tuesday afternoon for England via Nagau and the Bermuda where they will spend a few days sight-seeing and relaxing. They will be in their home country with the Rev. Luther A. Key, the Cambray Church in Cheltenham, Glos., England this Sunday.

Church Of God's 50th Assembly Attended By Pastor

Pastor Madison W. Sindie of the Belle Glade Church of God returned last Friday evening after attending the 50th General Assembly of the denomination in Dallas, Texas. The Church of God growth from 31,000 members in 1921 to over 500,000 followers in 1964 made it imperative that the church expand its facilities. The General Assembly approved the construction of a new $1,500,000 General headquarters Building in Cleveland, Tenn.

The executive Committee that has been composed of ministers and laymen has been increased to six members to care for the church's needs throughout the world. The Churches of God in two years of 1963-64 have increased $21,000,000 in property value. The forward stride in mission from 1958 to 1963 include these percentage increases: members 17 per cent, Mission Outstations 30%, Churches 40%, Ministers 64%, adherents 72%, property value 140%.

The Rev. Wade H. Horton, Church of God General Overseer, addressed the opening session of the assembly and urged church members to "fulfill the churches mission as decreed and designed by God."

"We are in the midst of an international crisis and the church is also facing the crisis," Rev. Horton said. "We must not rest on our laurels nor on our Pentecostal position, we must continue to preach the Old-Fashioned full gospel, Church of God, Pentecostal, fire baptized, holiness religion."

The Belle Glade Church of God has voted for Rev. Sindie to return for the 51st assembly as pastor. The appointment was made by Rev. James Cross, Florida State Overseer.

Pastor Swindle has been in Belle Glade one year and during this year plans have been drafted for a new Educational Building. Work is expected to start immediately.

Bible School Summary By Pastor Roseman

The Vacation Bible School at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Belle Glade, was brought to a close, with a special worship service on Friday evening, the 21st of August. In this service, the children themselves led the congregation in worship. At the service, the children also displayed the art projects which they completed during the two weeks session.

Humansly speaking, it is felt that the school was very successful, as all the children in our church attended, and one third of the total enrollment were children of non-members, Pastor Roseman said.

With the daily offerings, the children paid for the expense of the school; and with the Friday night offering, they decided to purchase both a Christian flag and an American flag for the church. At this time, we wish to thank; all the firm in Belle Glade that allowed us to use its posters; the Belle Glade Herald and Radio Station WSWN for the publicity of the Bible School; the Everglades Presbyterian Church for the use of their flags, and all teachers and workers in our school.

Clouds... Without Water

Life has been compared to many things: a stage, the sea, a highway. Whatever comparison we use, we are deeply impressed with the brevity of life. "For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away" (James 3:14). We are also impressed with that appointment common to all mankind; "it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). We are traveling in life toward the last bridge to eternity: DEATH. We stand this moment one heart-beat from eternity.

These great spiritual heroes of Hebrews 11 journeyed by faith and "confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth." As they traveled, they had a goal always before them; their sights were set on "a better country, that is an heavenly; wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city" (Heb. 11:16; John 14:1-3).

It is indeed saddening to see the Church of God today, a bridge to eternity without concern for arriving safely. Many become excited over an idea of philosophy today and by tomorrow may believe the very opposite. The General Assembly convinced there is a man on the moon or almost anything else. But, we must "be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine..." (Ephesians 4:14). Our road-map is the doctrine of Christ, and we should never accept or reject any doctrine until we study it in the light of the divinely inspired scriptures (II John 9; II Timothy 2:15; 2:16-17).

Some turn over a new leaf at New Year and fall back into the same rut after a couple of weeks or months. There are declarations galore to quit smoking or drinking, hold the tongue, or start Bible study programs. As the declarations are forgotten and abandoned, we are reminded of "clouds without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth... waves of the sea... wandering stars" (Jude 12).

Most of us know we are responsible to attend worship and study services regularly (Heb. 10:25). But church is thought of as "such a dull place to go" or perhaps we feel it would be a drag life to engage in daily worship and Bible study. Well, it all depends on where our "sights" are set. "Seek ye FIRST the kingdom of God and his righteousness..." (Matt. 6:33).

We must know where we're going, and we are doing our duty, and WHY. Let us avoid aimlessness and lukewarmness, lest "Christ spue us from his mouth" (Revelation 3:15-16).

'TEENAGER - STATUS WITHOUT DRINKING'

Sometimes the future looks black; we can't see a glimmer of light anywhere... and we ask for help without really expecting an answer. But we're wrong. Even that small word, "help" means that we have realized our own inadequacy and turned to Something outside ourselves for guidance.

Called, or not called, "God is an ever-present help in trouble." And whenever we ask Him to intervene, our lives are filled with new hope and inspiration.

He does not ask us to worry about the future. In fact, He doesn't intend us to worry at all. Worry indicates uncertainty and fear, and these have no place in Christian living.

Perhaps you are thinking "That takes greater faith than I'll ever have!" But you forget God's help. Perfect trust... serene peace of mind... these are your birthright. And your Church will teach you to attain them.

First Baptist Welcomes Home Rev. And Mrs. Luther Key

Rev. and Mrs. Luther A. Key

The First Baptist Church, 17 N. W. Avenue B, welcomes back into its fellowship this Sunday, August 30th, the Rev. Luther A. Key, Pastor, and Mrs. Key. Rev. and Mrs. Key have been in England for the past two months in an exchange ministry with the Rev. Richard Millington, from which the Rev. and Mrs. Key have traveled extensively in the British Commonwealth, speaking in numerous pulpits in England and Wales. He also participated in a Bible Conference in South England, speaking on two occasions there.

Rev. and Mrs. Key also visited many points of interest during their stay, including London, Birmingham, and Plymouth, from which the Rev. Key spoke aboard the Mayflower replica which was sailed to Miami in 1957. This ship was built in Plymouth and sailed to America via the same route the Pilgrims used. This was a highlight of their trip to Plymouth.

This Sunday, following the morning worship services, a dinner will be held in the Social Hall in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Key's homecoming, and also honoring the faculty and administration of our public schools. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and welcome their pastor back, in addition to meeting and greeting our school personnel.

Clouds... Without Water

By R. Halbrook

Life has been compared to many things: a stage, the sea, a highway. Whatever comparison we use, we are deeply impressed with the brevity of life. "For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away" (James 3:14). We are also impressed with that appointment common to all mankind: "It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). We are traveling in life toward the last bridge to eternity: DEATH. We stand this moment one heart-beat from eternity.

These great spiritual heroes of Hebrews 11 journeyed by faith and "confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth." As they traveled, they had a goal always before them; their sights were set on "a better country, that is, an heavenly: whereof God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city" (Heb. 11:16; John 14:1-3).

It is indeed sad to see so many wandering to the last bridge to eternity without concern for arriving safely. Many become excited over an idea of philosophy today and by tomorrow may believe the very opposite. Others can be convinced there is a man on the moon or almost anything else. But we must "be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine..." (Ephesians 4:14). Our road-map is the doctrine of Christ, and we reject or accept or reject our doctrine until we study it in the light of the divinely inspired scriptures (II John 9: II Timothy 2:15; 3:16-17).

Some turn over a new leaf at New Year and fall back into the same rut after a couple of weeks or months. There are declarations galore to quit smoking or drinking, hold the temper and tongue, or start Bible study programs. As the declarations are forgotten and abandoned, we are reminded of clouds without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth... waves of the sea... wandering stars" (Jude 12).

Most of us know we are responsible to attend worship and study services regularly (Heb. 10:25), but church is thought of as "such a dead place to go" or perhaps we feel it would be a drag life to engage in daily prayer and Bible study. Well, it all depends on where our hearts are. "Seek ye FIRST the kingdom of God and his righteousness..." (Matt. 6:33). We must know where we're going. What we need is faith, and WHY. Let us avoid aimlessness and lukewarmness, lest Christ change us from his mouth (Revelation 3:15-16).

"SET YOUR AFFECTIONS To These Religious Messages & Church News Brought To You By The Following Public Spirited CITIZENS AND BUSINESSES... THEY DESERVE YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT!"

ON THINGS ABOVE, NOT ON THINGS ON EARTH... (Colossians 4:1-3)

Won't you worship with the Southside Church of Christ (across from bowling alley). We warmly invite you to join us in doing Bible things in Bible ways, calling Bible things by Bible names.

"TEENAGER — STATUS WITHOUT DRINKING"

Church Of God's 50th Assembly Attended By Pastor

Pastor Madison W. Sindle of the Belle Glade Church of God returned last Friday evening after attending the 50th General Assembly of the denomination in Dallas, Texas.

The Church of God growth from 30,000 members in 1931 to over 500,000 followers in 1964 made it imperative that the church expand its facilities. The General Assembly approved the construction of a new $1,500,000 General Headquarters Building in Cleveland, Tenn.

The executive committee that had been composed of four members has been increased to six members to care for the church's needs throughout the world. The Churches of God in two years of 1963-64 have increased $21,000,000 in property value. The forward stride in missions from 1958 to 1963 include these percentage increases: members 17 per cent; Mission Outstations 50%; Churches 40%; Ministers 64%; adherents 72%; property value 140%.

The Rev. Wade H. Horber, Church of God General Overseer, addressed the opening session of the assembly and urged church members to "fulfill the churches mission as decreed and designed by God."

"We are in the midst of an international crisis and the church is also facing the crisis," Rev. Horton said. "We must not rest on our laurels nor on our Pentecostal position, we must continue to preach the Old Fashioned full gospel."

The Belle Glade Church of God, Pentecostal, fire baptized, holiness religion."

The Belle Glade Church of God has voted for Pastor Sindle to return for a two year term as pastor. The appointment was made by Rev. James Cross, Florida State overseer.

Pastor Swindle has been in Belle Glade one year and during this year plans have been outlined for a new Educational Building. Work is expected to start immediately.

Bible School Summary By Pastor Roseman

The Vacation Bible School at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Belle Glade, was brought to a close, with a special worship service on Friday evening, the 21st of August. In this service the children themselves led the congregation in worship. At the service, the children also displayed the art projects which they completed during the two weeks session.

Humanly speaking, it is felt that the school was very successful, as all the children in our church attended, and one-third of the total enrollment were children of non-members, Pastor Roseman said.

Bible School Summary By Pastor Roseman

With the daily offerings, the children paid for the expenses of the school; and with the Friday night offerings, they decided to purchase both a Christian and an American flag for the church.

At this time, we wish to thank all the firm in Belle Glades that allowed us to put up posters; the Belle Glade Herald, and Radio Station WSWN for the publicity of the Bible School; the Everglades Presbyterian Church for the use of their playground and all teachers and workers in our school.

Streamline Housekeeping

By Alma Warren

Tired of being tired? If you feel you are an overworked homemaker, why not streamline your housekeeping? Have economics specialists with the Florida Agricultural Extension Service offer some suggestions to help you do just that.

First of all, rearrange your equipment, and supplies so that you are as close as possible to where you use them. Place them at your best working height.

Junk or retire to less valuable space household wares you are not using and that you do not need.

Save kitchen mileage by planning meal preparation carefully and by using a tray cart in setting the table, for example. Save your back by using wheels — such as a laundry cart — to carry heavy washloads.

The results will astonish you. Did you know that for one meal, over a year's time, you can save a total of 67 miles?

The teacher hours available are allocated by the State Department of Education and have been increased from 15,300 for 1963-64 to 21,600 for the year 1964-65.

This increase will permit the high school libraries at adult education night centers to be open at least one night per week for service to the adults taking

I Know We Don't Want Communism

A lady guide was assigned to the group on their 4-day tour of Southern Russia. According to Knight, she was very efficient, well-educated and well-rounded in conversation. She would answer most questions, but not all—especially when the question pertained to Communism, doctrine, teachings and rules within Russia.

The lady guide had been to the dentist to have a tooth filled, the day she started with the group, and she suffered from the toothache. She told the group, the dentist must have made a slight error in her case. All medical care is free in Russia, and once a Government Doctor or Dentist treats you, that's it.

When the 17 Americans finished their tour of Russia, they flew to Switzerland. "We were so happy to get out from behind the Iron Curtain," said Knight, "that we could not help but tip our hands for joy. It was like getting away from doom and despair."

"I wish that each and every American could visit Russia and see for themselves, their way of life. He would, indeed, be a better American," said Knight.

"We, who saw with our own eyes, are no longer afraid of Russia or the Communist teachings. It has nothing to offer to any man, but regimentation and loss of freedom."

"We respect the Russians and their problems. They have a long way to go to even come close to American standards of way of life. Trying to solve these problems by Communist methods, will take decades, not just a few years."

"I am proud of our ability to produce a surplus of food and other commodities," said Knight, "and our entire group feels that the government and the people in every community shall encourage young people to own their own home, and to own their own business."

They will know the real fruits of the Free Enterprise System and be more willing to stand up and fight for America, and for what it stands."

In 1957, 48,545 students were enrolled in all institutions of higher learning, public and private, in Florida. Last fall there were 101,993. It is expected to double again by 1970, reaching 218,000.

Optometric Assn. Holds Meeting

Dr. Donald Fillets and Dr. R. Y. Crooch, Belle Glade Optometric Assn., attended a recent meeting of the Florida East Coast Optometric Association held at First Federal Savings and Loan, in Lake Worth.

Dr. Paul Bobel, of Dallas, Texas, told members attending, that after three years of present research, a new chemically safe contact lens has been produced, providing an answer to claims against these seeing aids.

The new lens, tested out to be chemically safe, has bacteriostatic action, wears easily, the growth of germs, thereby preventing or retarding possible infections caused by carelessness of the wearer, or by dust particles getting to the eyes.

Liquor Stores

Request Later Closing Hours

Belle Glade City Commission refused to be stampeded into hasty action Monday evening, when the City Liquor dispensers requested an extension of closing hours.

Andrew Mullo, owner of Ace Liquors, appeared before the Commission and asked that an immediate vote on the extension of closing hours from midnight until 2:00 a. m., daily, and to 3:00 a. m. on Saturday night.

This request had been made at a previous meeting, but at that time, one member of the Commission was absent, and the vote ended in a tie, 2-2.

Mayor-Commissioner, George LeBron Williams, said it would not be fair to those opposed to the extension of opening hours without giving them a chance to voice their reasons.

City Manager, Tevis Huguley, pointed out that there was a promise made to both sides that no action would be taken on this matter, unless both the liquor interest and those opposed were given sufficient notification.

After a short discussion among the Commissioners, it was decided to table any action on the matter until the liquor interest made a written request for the change in hours.

Conservation Areas Above Schedule

Two of the three giant Conservation Areas in Palm Beach, Broward and Dade Counties are above schedule and the third (Conservation Area 3) contains the most water it has held since the southern dikes were completed more than one year ago, according to Executive Director G. E. Dill.

In fact, Dill said, the water reserve has made it possible to discharge a considerable amount of water into the Everglades National Park. As a result the National Park has ample water, on the first time in two years.

"and now we can close the gates and bring Conservation Area 3 up to schedule."

Only bleak spot on the water condition horizon is the Kissimmee Valley where construction is underway to provide controlled water conditions for the lakes in the upper Kissimmee and along the winding river.

Rainfall in the Kissimmee Basin during the past month was only 4.52 inches, a departure of 3.98 from the normal 8.51 figure.

In the 221-square-mile Conservation Area No. 1 (Palm Beach County) the water stage is at 15.16, 31 over the normal regulation of 14.55. Excess water from Conservation Area 1 is being discharged into Area 2 in order to bring the Area to schedule.

The 210-square-mile Conservation Area 2 is at a level of 12.38 feet, just slightly over the 12.35 foot regulation. Structures here, too, are open, discharging water into Conservation Area 3.

Conservation Area 3, 914 square miles in size, in Broward and Dade Counties, has an 8.39 elevation, some 31 of a foot below the 9.20 regulation, but the gates have been open to discharge water into the Everglades National Park. Now with ample water in the Park these gates will be closed and Conservation Area 3 should be up to normal if the current weather trend continues, according to Dill.

Bel le Glade Has A Claim On Star Florence Henderson

BELLE GLADE HAS A CLAIM and special interest in Florence Henderson, singing hostess of the Summer theatre-in-the-round of the "Bell Telephone Hour." Miss Henderson will again be seen on the series' NBC colorcast of Tuesday, Sept. 8. The program presents popular and classical singers, dancers and instrumentalists in a format putting emphasis on new stars of the entertainment world.

The unwavering faith along with constant material assistance of a devoted brother and family comes to mind each and every time Miss Florence Henderson appears on the screen, to those of us watching who knew the family.

Now, constantly in star performances on TV, we wish brother Joe, who never doubted her ability to "make the big time" could be proudly watching her accomplishments . . . but you see, brother Joe isn't around now. He died a few years back in a tragic fire at his home in West Palm Beach, but not before he knew his sister had "made the top." This, his many Glades friends were thankful for.

Mother Henderson, daughter Emily, who was a Belle Glade telephone operator, and Joe who was also a long time telephone employee in the Glades, were close neighbors to THE HERALD. For some years — they back in the late 50's — they occupied an upstairs apartment in THE HERALD building. The pride of all the family in sister, Florence was evident to all who knew them . . . and justly so. We here at THE HERALD, who more closely associated with the family than with Florence, felt a distinct pride in the BROTHER, MOTHER and SISTER.

Mother Henderson was all the titles implies — a very motherly little lady — devoted to her family's welfare. She had been widowed a number of years and depended to a great extent on her son Joe, who well lived up to all her needs.

A friendly young man, Joe stopped by the office frequently to "bring us up to date" on his sister Florence's progress as she climbed the ladder to recognition for her wonderful talent.

He kept a scrap book from the beginning of her career and diligently up-dated it with each new press release or other coordinating data. Letters flew

Mrs. Doris Stanley Rites In Georgia

Mrs. Doris Pauline Stanley, 62, sister of Mr. George Scarborough of this city, passed away Aug. 21, after an extended illness at the University of Florida Health Center, Gainesville.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist Church, Port Tampa on August 24, where her husband Rev. R. M. Stanley a retired minister was former pastor. A memorial service followed on Wednesday, Aug. 19 at 3 p. m. in the family burial plot at Dublin, Ga.

Other survivors include her husband Rev. Stanley; one daughter, Mrs. Ray Mave, Jr. and one son Lt. Robert Stanley, Orangeburg, N. C. Four brothers in addition to George Scarborough, Harry, Guy, Brigam and Hoke of Warner Robbins, Ga.

back and forth between brother and sister.

Frequently we joined in beauty shop conversations and gleaned the latest from sister Emily on Miss Florence's activities . . . joyful reports on her latest accomplishments . . . and never a mite of envy.

We like to remember Mother Henderson, who now lives in West Palm Beach, rocking away in her chair . . . always with a sewing basket handy, after the day's work for the family allowed a lull . . . at home always when the children — though grown — returned from work.

It is heart-warming to recall the family's joy when Miss Florence was auditioned for the stage play "Oklahoma," one of her first star roles.

We're sure, as we watch Miss Henderson's TV performances that this vibrant friendly young lady would be the first to acknowledge and tell her friends about her everyday wonderful family . . . as she isn't available for an interview, we chose to attempt to do it for her.

Behind every success story are those who helped light the way, who inspired faith and bolstered confidence . . . those who today might say "I knew she could do it."

Belle Glade, Florida
Gentlemen:

The Belle Glade Sewerage map, reproduced in The Belle Glade Herald this week, is "the most terrific service community-wide from a public health standpoint that I have ever experienced during my 38 years of work in public health, industrial and commercial sanitation."

I certainly feel Belle Glade Herald and all who cooperated with it should be accorded a public tribute.

Candidates File For City Election

Post No. 20, and is Vice-Chief of Belle Glade Memorial Hospital staff.

He gave the following statement to the Herald: "I have this date, made the decision to enter the race for a seat on the Belle Glade City Commission. This decision was reached, only after consultation with close friends and careful deliberation. It is my belief that it is the duty of every individual to serve his community in whatever capacity he is qualified, regardless of the time and effort required. This is the principal reason for my action."

The people of this city can be assured that I will represent them honestly, sincerely, and openly; and that I do not now, nor will I, represent any individual or faction regarding their special interests when it conflicts with what I feel is the best interest of Belle Glade. Furthermore, I have not encouraged nor do I publicly endorse any candidate, incumbent or new, in this city election.

Monday evening, I met with the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce to discuss this action as well as the appointment or election of a new president of the Chamber. This matter will be taken up by the Board of Directors in the immediate future."

Slade is owner-manager of the Badcock Furniture Store in Belle Glade, and for some time has been urging "more business men for public office."

He has said repeatedly that businessmen should take a greater interest in government, not only in local affairs, but at the County, State and National level.

"Government," said Slade, "is business, big business, and a merchant should be qualified to run a growing business."

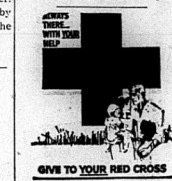

Slade had nothing but praise of the work being done by the present Commission. He said he just wanted to be sure that the "small business people," are represented.

Clks Who Helped Build Belle Glade

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McDonald

Belle Glade can well be proud of two of its senior citizens—Carroll and Gladys McDonald. They have added much to the growing Belle Glade. To help make it a town to be proud of. Born in Ludowici, Georgia, June 28, 1893, Mrs. McDonald was married to Carroll, a native Floridian, whose home was Daytona. They resided in Tampa for some time, and in January of 1928, moved to Belle Glade. There Mr. McDonald was associated with McDonald and Bergman Caterpillar Tractor Company, state dealers for Caterpillars. At that time, they had one small daughter, Carolyn, two years old.

The McDonalds were old to see the first sugar mill come into existence, and state that at that time, most houses were built of cypress. Mrs. McDonald says she could stand on her front porch and watch the sugar mill going up, as there were no trees then.

They will remember the Hurricane of 1928, when there was so much damage, and the terrible loss of lives.

In 1934, after the Clewiston Motor Company changed hands, he McDonalds moved to Belle Glade, building the structure where Coastal Motors is today, living for a time in an apartment in the building on the west side. Mrs. McDonald helped her husband in their business as parts and sales clerk. This business, however, was short lived, as the road from where the Chamber of Commerce building now stands, was torn up from there to six mile bridge, to build the new highway, and as Avenue E at that time was only a narrow, dirt road, they closed out the business establishment. "Mack" then took the job of sales manager for Clewiston Motor Company, on this side of the lake. They later moved to the Holloway subdivision in one of the new houses being built, living there for two years, and then, buying "the home in which they still live."

When their youngest child, Marjorie, was six years and started to school, Mrs. McDonald aid herself with the Garden Club, P. T. A., church work and O. E. S.

She states that for years, they had tried to improve the park and take care of the trees and plants which were planted in 1948, but to no avail, so she asked the County Commission for help in the care of the park. There were no trees but one rubber tree. After being told they could not hire help unless someone could supervise this work, and since money was short at that time, and pay very small, she took the job herself at a salary of $50.00 a month paying her own expenses, to prove that a park and play ground were really needed.

In 1949, the city presented her with a pickup, which she still has, and she spent the next 16 years, (of which she says were the happiest) helping to make our city a place to be proud to live in. She worked not only for a park for the white children, but was instrumental in getting a park and playground for the colored children as well; two of the best equipped parks anywhere — Belle Glade Municipal Park and Lake Shore Park.

Mr. "Mack" retired six years ago; Mrs. "Mack" retiring two years ago, but still keenly interested in keeping our city attractive, and willing to be of help wherever and whenever she can to keep it so.

She was sincerely honored by having the park named for her, and she says "I shall always be grateful for this honor. It isn't too often one is honored and around at the same time to enjoy and appreciate it."

They plan to remain lifetime residents of Belle Glade because this is "home," to all their family. They have five children: two sons and three daughters. A daughter, Corroli is a graduate of the University of Florida, with a masters degree, and Harry is a graduate from Murray State, also with a masters degree.

Keeping Ornamental Damage Low When Hurricane Winds Blow . . .

By Jack Horan

No one can stop a hurricane's destructive winds from blowing, but we can take precautionary steps to minimize damage to ornamentals and trees around homes and gardens.

According to Charles A. Conover, assistant ornamental horticulturist with the Florida Agricultural Extension Service, hurricanes will be hurricanes and will tend to tear down prize camellia bushes or uproot backyard orange trees without showing the least bit of favoritism. However, this doesn't mean that we can't take a proverbial ounce of prevention beforehand.

Conover says homeowners can prepare their yard and garden for the onslaught of a hurricane and can limit the effects of damage afterwards as well.

He recommends the following steps be taken prior to a storm.

1. Remove all dead limbs and palm fronds from trees, and any limbs that may strike the house when the wind blows. Prune and thin trees according to recognized practices to reduce wind resistance. Paint pruning wounds with an asphalt paint containing a fungicide to prohibit entrance of disease organisms.

2. Store or dismantle statuary objects such as birdbaths or statues which are in the yard. If storage room is unavailable, lay objects on the ground in a guarded place. A broken-down birdbath is safe fall on the ground.

3. Brace recently transplanted trees and palms (planted within a year) either with posts or rope to prevent uprooting. Palm trees can be braced by fixing stakes at angles to the trunk. It is necessary that anchor points be sunk deeply since a heavy rain will loosen soil.

4. Anchor all lawn and garden furniture securely to prevent it from blowing around, or store furniture.

5. Home greenhouses and shade structures present difficult problems since most are not built to withstand high winds. Strong hurricane winds will damage Saran plastic structures; however, losses can be held to a minimum if these structures are secured to the ground. Rope or some other fastening material thrown across the top of the house and tied at each end will protect it from all but severe gusts.

After the storm has passed, Conover says the homeowner should survey any damage clean up his yard, then follow these measures to keep the amount of destruction low.

1. Prune broken limbs and paint pruning wounds with an asphalt paint.

2. Fertilize your complete garden, including shrubbery and trees, since heavy rains which accompany hurricanes wash away most of the fertilizer present in the soil.

3. Reset small trees immediately after the storm, and they will have a good chance of living.

RESOLUTION

This appeal is being sent out to all Chambers of Commerce in Palm Beach County, as well as all civic organizations asking help in our road hazard problem.

A RESOLUTION OF THE BELLE GLADE LIONS CLUB RELATING TO CANAL HAZARDS ALONG HIGHWAYS.

- WHEREAS there are more than 100 miles of open and unprotected canals lying along the public highways in Palm Beach County, which present an extreme hazard to the motoring public;
- WHEREAS said canals have claimed the lives of 38 persons during the year 1963, with 44 additional persons injured;
- WHEREAS there is no known effort to eliminate this hazard and no known long term plan being considered by any public or private agency which might help with this problem;
- WHEREAS said hazard has been allowed to exist and grow progressively worse for the past 20 years;

WHEREAS the population growth and the economic growth in Palm Beach County resulting in increased traffic, this will become increasingly dangerous to each person who uses the adjacent highways;

WHEREAS the Belle Glade Lions Club recognizes its responsibility as a civic club to cooperate in any and all efforts to seek a solution to eliminate the danger of death and injury to occupants of vehicles traveling highways in South Florida adjacent to unprotected canals;

NOW THEREFORE, Be it resolved and it is hereby resolved by the Belle Glade Lions Club:

1. That this club recognizes as an extreme hazard to the traveling public, unprotected canals adjacent to highways in South Florida.
2. That this club acknowledges its civic duty to participate in promoting the necessary leadership to obtain official action in providing the proper safeguard to eliminate the danger of said hazard.
3. That civic organizations and officials in South Florida be encouraged and requested to join in providing the support and leadership necessary to effectively accomplish the prevention of death and injury resulting from hazard.
4. That the Safety Committee of the Belle Glade Lions Club be and it is hereby authorized and directed to pursue with due diligence the cooperative efforts of other organizations in obtaining the joint leadership that is necessary to obtain the coordinated efforts of public officials in providing a solution that will completely eliminate the danger of unprotected canals along the highways of South Florida.

DONE AND RESOLVED ON this 12th day of August, 1964.

You Have To Earn It

More and more these days, we hear it said that "All men are equal."

We hear it over the radio on television; we read it in the newspapers and magazines. Politicians and men in high places keep repeating it. Ministers preach it from the pulpits:

"All men are equal."
We beg to differ — in our opinion, all men are not equal.

Some are born strong and husky, some are weak; Some have great mental ability — some do not.

God gave life to man, and there it stopped. He did not make all good ball players, good farmers, good merchants, or even good fishermen. He did not make them all good teachers, or good leaders of men.

He just left it up to the individual.
He did not even give to all men in all places, an equal start in life, but in his wisdom, he did leave the door open to every man on earth, no matter where he might be, an opportunity to equal or excel his fellow man.

The savage in the jungle has the opportunity, if he wants to learn, how to shoot his bow and arrow, and with better aim, and by doing so, to become as good or better hunter than his neighbor.

Here in America, he was very generous. He left the door wide open — no matter what the color of your skin might be whether you start high or poor, strong or weak, he left it up to each of us as to how high up the ladder of equality we might climb.

Some start with great wealth and end in the gutter. Some start poor and end up wealthy and still end up in the gutter of public opinion. Al Capone is a good example. Some never reach great wealth, but attain the top most round of success and equality in the hearts and minds of the people. George Washington Carver, the great negro scientist attained an equality and even excelled the men of his time. Harry Truman, ex-president of the United States, started at the bottom of the ladder and reached an equal that many of us will never attain. Jackie Robinson, the great baseball player, and now a successful business man, has attained a place in life that is hard to equal. All of these and all men like them didn't have much help to start — they had to make the grade on their own.

All men equal.
My Foot! — I don't believe it.

Equality is that open door you have to all. If you want to equal your neighbor, and fellow man, you give work and plan, and work some more, in order to attain it, and be accepted as an equal.

Equality is not something that the Lord passed out to all — neither is it something that the government in Washington can give to any man. No laws passed by Congress, no ruling by the courts of the law can make "all men equal."

Equality is something you have to earn on your own.

Help Clean Up Belle Glade

In The Mailbag

EDITOR'S NOTE — The following letter, sent to THE HERALD by Lions Society Committee Chairman, Henry O. Earwood, is being mailed out to every civic organization in Palm Beach County. This is part of the CANAL HAZARD program being coordinated by our Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce.

President and Members of every civic organization:

During the last 20 years we have had several hundred lives lost by drowning in the unprotected canals that lie along our highways. So far as we know there has been no concerted effort by organized groups to do anything to eliminate this hazard.

Some one or some group has a responsibility to do something to stop this needless loss of precious lives.

I believe that the citizens of this area, in order that we may preserve our human dignity, have a duty to ourselves and to the motoring public to do something about this matter.

It is for this reason that we, the Lions Club of Belle Glade, Florida, ask you to present to your organization the enclosed Resolution for their adoption.

We further request that you appoint at least one person to serve on a County-wide committee which we hope to form. The person or persons appointed should be genuinely interested in this matter and should be in a position to devote some time to its desired goals.

The Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce is acting as a coordinator of this move and your reply should be addressed to CANAL HAZARD, care of the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, Belle Glade, Florida.

We hope that every organization in Palm Beach County and every interested citizen will exhibit a keen desire to assist us in this movement.

Sincerely,
Henry O. Earwood, Club Chairman
Belle Glade Lions Club

Some Goldwater Views

Senator Barry Goldwater's nomination has the public hunking around for his views on important subjects. Just what does he believe?

From time to time he issues statements which are somewhat contradictory and inconsistent. But he has put himself on record in his recent book, "The Conscience of a Conservative." Here are some quotes:

Government must begin to withdraw from a whole series of programs that are outside its constitutional mandate — social welfare programs, education, public power, agriculture, public housing, urban renewal and all the other activities that can be better performed by lower levels of government or by private institutions or by individuals.

"I do not suggest that the federal government drop all these programs overnight. But I do suggest that we establish, by law, a rigid time table, for a staged withdrawal. We might provide, for example, for 10% spending reduction each year in all of the fields in which federal participation is undesirable."

"The graduated tax is a confiscatory tax," he said about income tax.

"Government has a right to claim an equal percentage of each man's wealth, no more."

"The time has come, not to abolish labor unions or deprive them of deserved gains; but to redress the balance — restore unions to their proper role in a free society." The evil to be eliminated is the power of unions to enforce industry-wide bargaining.

"I believe it is both wise and just for Negro children to attend the same schools as whites, and that to deny them this opportunity carries with it strong implications of inferiority. I am not prepared, however, to impose that judgement of mine on the people of Mississippi or South Carolina. That is their business, not mine. I believe that the problem of race relations, like all social and cultural problems, is best handled by the people directly concerned."

He says he strongly favors enactment of State right-to-work laws, and believes that Federal intervention in education is unconstitutional. "Federal aid to education inevitably means federal control of education," is the way he sums up his ideas on the subject.

He wants "prompt and final termination" of the farm subsidy program, he says, citing that no power over agriculture was given by the Constitution to any branch of the national government.

Science And Our Future

By: Donald H. Andrews,
Distinguished Professor of Chemistry
Florida Atlantic University

It is not only the vast magnitude of hydrogen power but its intensity that may have such a revolutionary effect on our technology. The temperature attained in hydrogen fusion is estimated to be of the order of the magnitude of about ten million degrees centigrade. If this energy can be used in jet propulsion then many new possibilities are opened up. Of course, to do this we have to develop some way of confining and directing this power and at present there does not appear to be any hope of making any alloy or ceramic that will keep its strength even at temperatures much above 10,000 degrees. However, there is a possibility that a magnetic field can be developed of high intensity that will confine and direct the high speed particles that are the result of such nuclear reaction. If in some way nuclear jet engines become a practical reality then there are sure to be revolutionary advances both in air travel and in travel to outer space.

In the first place, with this new magnitude of thrust it should be not too difficult to put as many satellites into orbit around the earth as we wish. The size of these satellites could run into thousands of tons. We can imagine satellite space stations collecting waste material present at airports and circulating it back to the earth. If you wish to take a trip to Mars, you may first get into a space taxi right in your own back yard. This taxi could take off as first as a helicopter and then after gaining altitude, travel at supersonic speeds, and finally after space terminal, circulating overhead from which you space ship will leave. This spaceship will not be a cramped capsule but a vessel as large and commodious as an ocean liner. It will have air conditioning, luxurious cabins and salons, and even swimming pools. Your ship leaves the space terminal on a normally as easy as the acceleration of gravity so that you walk around on Mars as normally as on earth. If you are traveling to Mars, you may proceed out for about three days and then return. The time between the bells ring, you fasten your seat belts and the ship turns over so that it can decelerate for three days more, bringing you to Mars in less than a week.

At the present time, exploring the surface of Mars may be somewhat uncomfortable. The evidence is that the atmosphere of Mars may be made up largely of gases like ammonia or methane that would be most unhealthy to breathe in quantity. It is certain that one would need some kind of space helmet in order to walk around on Mars. If, however, you make use of the proposal I have made that we can transport up to Mars nuclear devices that may actually transmute the atmosphere of Mars from its present lethal gases into oxygen and nitrogen in the proportions found here on earth. If the surface of Mars is sterile desert, it may even be possible to transmute and change it into fertile soil. So you may be able to walk around on the surface of Mars as comfortably as you do here on earth and your great grandchildren may even build homes and settle down to live there.

Naturally, one asks to what extent ideas like this are science fiction. This raises an important question of our analysis of the effect of science on our future. Can we predict with any certainty from the present state of our nuclear knowledge what the practical possibilities in its applications may be some decades hence? To evaluate this criticism it seems logical to compare the growth of nuclear science with the growth of some other branch of science that has taken place over the last hundred years. For example, look at organic chemistry, that branch of chemistry that deals largely with compounds having as their basic element carbon, and recall that about a hundred years ago organic chemistry was in its infancy. At this time it was possible to identify only a relatively few organic compounds and synthesis still fewer. Only with the advent of an understanding of the basic principles of chemical binding and valence did that science mature into the present vast body to knowledge that permits us literally to make millions of different compounds of carbon if we do

UNCLE DAN from DOOLIE says:

Dear Mister Editor:

I see by the papers where they were building some Army barracks at Fort Jackson in South Carolina and the low bid came from a large local contractor. The second low bid was from a small contractor in another state and it was $97,000 higher than the low bid. The clerks in one of the Government agencies named the Small Business Administration throwed out the low bid and paid the $97,000 difference to the next bidder. They claimed the low bidder was too big to qualify for the bidding. The taxpayers lost $97,000 but after all, Mister Editor, it ain't nothing but money and don't belong to nobody but us.

Then I was reading this piece where the U. S. Treasury said they could save $15 million a year on their printing bill. If folks didn't object to $2 billion, I think the taxpayers would stand for a heap of objecting for being a dollar's worth of anything. I hate to say it, Mister Editor, but I've got down to the place where I'm willing for the wimmen to take over the Government and try running it for a spell. They could do no worse.

A statement like that would've got me hunk to the nearest tree 50 year ago, but wimmen has been coming along fast. I remember when I was a boy they would say a feller was about to "commit matrimony." You'd hear that and a feller'd put on the "matrimony harness." You don't hear that kind of talk no more, not in them wedding writups in the papers nor have I to look in the fine print to see if the groom was present for the event.

They say wimmen own 85 per cent of all the wealth in this country, and I was noting this piece in the papers from the Census Bureau where 23 million out of the 43 million homes in America now has a wife bringing in a regular paycheck. It could be that the wimmen would look after our dollars a little better in Washington and I'm in favor of giving 'em the chance.

But I don't aim to put 'em on the agenda at the country store Saturday night. Most of the fellers there was old-fashioned and still claims a wimmen's place was in the home. Some of 'em don't even allow they has took the word "housewife" out of the dictionary. I recollect back during the last war, when the OPA took the tax off rubber tires on baby carriages, the wimmen bombarded the Congress and got it took off the carriages too. I allowed at the time as how it proved the power of wimmen. But Ed Doolie claimed the Congress was just playing it cozy and was trying to keep new taxpayers coming along. The only way wimmen will ever get a fair hearing at the country store, Mister Editor, is to let my old lady set in on one of the sessions.

Yours truly,

Uncle Dan
